PRESIDENT: Senator Keyes, did you wish to be heard again? Senator Syas, I've called on you twice. Well you've had it twice. Senator Rasmussen are you ready to close on the matter?

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. President, members of the body, I don't think any closing is required. I think we're pretty well versed in our own minds as to what this resolution does.

PRESIDENT: Senator Syas, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR SYAS: To ask Senator Rasmussen a question. I'm for the resolution.

PRESIDENT: Well address your question to the Chair.

SENATOR SYAS: Alright, that's what I'll do. Harlan Reservoir was built by the United States Engineers.

PRESIDENT: Would you state the question.

SENATOR SYAS: Yes, the question's coming.

PRESIDENT: Well, no, state the question first. I'm familiar with Harlan.

SENATOR SYAS: Is it a flood control project, or an irrigation project?

PRESIDENT: That's out of order.

SENATOR SYAS: Be careful how you answer.

PRESIDENT: That's out of order on this resolution. The question is the adoption of Senator Rasmussen's resolution. Record your vote. Record. Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. President, I ask for a Call of the House.
